CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON May 26—The chair laid before the Senate a communication from the commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for the department of the Potomac asking that Decoration Day, May 30 be observed as a national holiday and inviting the Senate to participate in the ceremony of decorating soldiers' graves, referred to the committee on military affairs.

Morrill, from the committee on appropriations reported with various amendments the House bill making appropriations for the legislative executive and judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1877, placed on the calendar

The naval appropriation bill which was received from the House yesterday, was read by title and returned to the committee on appropriations

The Senate then suspended legislative business and resumed the consideration of the articles of impeachment against Belknap with closed doors.

Hamilton presented the memorial of the Crow Indians in relation to the funds due them under the treaty of 1832, and the act of 1837 for the support of the orphan children of that tribe, referred to the committee on Indian affairs.

Wright, from the committee on civil service and retrenchment, reported back the bill fixing the salary of the President of the United States at $25,000 per annum, together with the message of the President vetoing the same, and recommend that the bill be passed, notwithstanding the objection of the President. Wright said he had been directed by the committee to request the Senate to take action on the bill as soon as possible It was placed on the calendar

At 12:35 legislative business was suspended and the Senate resumed the consideration of the Belknap impeachment with closed doors

Before reaching any decision at 5:40 the doors were opened and the Senate adjourned

House.

Brown, from the committee on claims presented to the House the message of the President vetoing the Senate bill for the relief of G B Tyler and E H Luckett assignees of Wm F Cheatham and moved that the House pass the bill

Notwithstanding the President's veto after remarks by Brown the bill passed yeas 14 nays 14

Tecso offered a resolution appointing J H Patterson of New York doorkeeper of the House which was adopted, and Mr Patterson was then sworn into office

The Speaker presented to the House a message from the President vetoing the bill providing for the recording of deeds mortgages and other conveyances affecting real estate in the District of Columbia. The message and bill were referred to the judiciary committee

On motion of Eden chairman of the committee on war claims the House proceeded to consider the bill making appropriation for the payment of the claims reported allowed by the commissioner of claims, passed

Luttrell introduced a resolution reciting that an article appeared in the Baltimore Gazette of May 25th charging that $800,000 had been expended by the Pacific coast to procure the passage of the bill to carry into effect the treaty with the Hawaiian Islands and directing the committee on ways and means to make an immediate investigation into the true history of such charges. He desired the [illegible] investigations, and if any one had any testimony that money had been used in lobbying for the passage of that bill, he would be glad to see the bill defeated in the Senate The resolution was then adopted

West, from the committee on railroads reported back the Senate bill to create a sinking fund for the liquidation of government bonds advanced to the Central Western and Pacific railroad companies, with amendments and a written report on the subject, also a new bill to create a sinking fund for the liquidation of the government bonds advanced to the Union Pacific railroad company, and for the settlement of the claims of the government on account of said bonds placed on calendar

The bill to create a sinking fund for the payment of Union Pacific railroad company s subsidy bonds provides in brief, that the United States shall credit the company with $15,000,000, the value of the 5,000,000 acres of lands to be reconveyed to the government, which sum together with $1,000,000 now due for government transportation, shall be made the basis of the sinking fund and the company is to pay into the United States Treasury semi annually such sum not exceeding $750,000 per year as will when added to the other sums credited to the sinking fund with six per cent. interest per annum compounded semi annually be sufficient to extinguish the government subsidy bonds and the simple interest thereupon at maturity The bill requires the company to provide for and pay the land grant bonds issued on all lands which are to be reconveyed to the government. The bill reported from the same committee to create a sinking fund for the Central Pacific Railroad Company contains the same provisions except that the money payment into the United States treasury is to be $850,000 per year. The company is to reconvey and have credit for 6,000,000 acres of land in Utah and Nevada at the same valuation of $2 50 per acre

On motion of Cox the Senate amendments to the bill authorizing the appointment of receivers of National Banks were nonconcurred in

The House then went into committee of the whole, Springer in the chair on the bill to revise and simplify existing laws imposing duties on imports and to reduce taxation

Morrison chairman of the committee on ways and means proceeded to address the committee in explanation of the bill.

The House then went into committee on the private calendar After some time the committee rose and reported to the House a number of private bills, which passed Adjourned

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

ROSEBURG, May 26—From a letter dated at Empire City Coos county Oregon, May 23d, and addressed to E Livingstone sheriff of Douglas county, we learn that a deliberate and cowardly murder was committed near there May 22d, at 11 o clock A M by a man named Revere Lewis He shot his half brother first in the back and then under the arm after which he took his departure and no trace of him as yet has been found, although every effort is being put forth to effect his arrest No cause is assigned in the letter for the murder but it says Lewis crimes aside from this are an outrage against all decency and if any one deserved hanging he surely does

FASHION NOTES.

There is a decided tendency to diagonal and shield fronts both in basques and polonaises

A small screen of either white or black silk richly embroidered and with an ivory handle is the approved parasol for driving in an open carriage

Two very important articles in the lingerie line are the saut de lit and the matinee The first as it name indicates is the garment slipped on on rising and does not require to be much trimmed It is cut full and long the material is pique, molleton or flannel

The fichu a la Collinette made of lace or crepe de chine and fastened over the breast, is very popular. Fichus of all kinds will be very fashionable this summer elegant ones are now being made of Valenciennes guipure Malines and Bruges laces, but Valenciennes has the preference

An in door dress may be of gray mohair trimmed with fine plaitings of cherry colored faille The tunic is gray and white opens on the side and is bordered where it opens with a cherry colored plaiting, in the opening are gathered and plaited ruffles in the two colors alternating

A new style of robe de chambre is made of gray poplin It is in princess shape small bands of black velvet with triangular ends are fastened on the borders by bright steel buttons these buttons are up the fronts on the pockets on the lower part of the sleeves and on the back where the garment is taken up A black velvet skirt is worn under this robe de chambre

Many of the new bonnets have soft faille foulard or gauze crowns which form capes in the back with ribbon strings to match They are elaborately trimmed with flowers The flowers most used are boules de neige white violets gillyflowers and primroses They are arranged in garlands, sometimes cover the crown, or are placed in sprays

WASHINGTON CITY.

Schenck Condemned

WASHINGTON May 26—The report of the House committee on foreign affairs in the Schenck case [illegible] Schenck [illegible] studied impartiality [illegible] will be [illegible] as well in England as here The judgment is stern [illegible] but we cannot see how any other could have been reached

Consular Bill

The Tribune's Washington special says the conferees on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill held meetings last night and to day but were unable to agree and will report the two Houses The committee consists of Sargent Frelinghuysen and Withers and of representatives Randall Singleton and Walker The Democratic members insisted upon the bill as it passed the House It is reasonably certain that the Senate will not agree to the whole slaughter made in the consular and diplomatic service by the House and unless the House conclude to agree to accept many of the changes in the bill by the Senate there will be a deadlock which may put in jeopardy the entire foreign service Unless this and other pending appropriation bills are enacted prior to July 1st there will be no available means to carry on the government the law making it a penal affair to use money in the treasury for purposes other than those for which they are specially appropriated Should a dead lock take place on the consular and diplomatic bill and continue beyond the end of the present fiscal year the President will be required to suspend or recall our foreign ministers and consuls, as there will be no authority of law for their continuance That he will do this, may be inferred from the fact that when the appropriation for lighting the public buildings was exhausted he directed that the light and heat should be extinguished, and the water service cut off until the necessary appropriation should be made

Morton's Hopes.

NEW YORK May 26—The World's Washington special dispatch says the supporters of Morton flatter themselves that the contest in the light of to day s situation is virtually narrowed to Blaine and Conkling Both the latter consider Bristow out of the question since the latter s defeat in Illinois after the championship of the Tribune Leading Western Republicans declare the steamboat man will go against Conkling because of his attempted legislation against them This would lose Ohio certainly and possibly other States.

Blaine's Prospects.

While Blaine s prospects brighten decidedly but few outside of his immediate friends are willing to concede his nomination In the minds of most politicians here the strength of the Great Unknown into whose balance the ballots of Morton and Conkling delegates may yet be thrown is still very formidable A canvass of Blaine s supporters makes the answer to that by figures, which are footed up to night for him at 291 to which they say Iowa may be added making 316 being 63 less than the majority which is necessary for a choice If he fails to secure the latter number his workers insist that he has gone far enough to control the organization of the convention and will make headway from that point

The Democratic Senators and members are not alarmed at Blaine s prospects They regard him as the easiest man to defeat in the South and West and no one of them believes he could carry New York or the outlying Democratic States against the St. Louis candidate As for the contest in Indiana in October the Democratic triumph for Governor there is deemed a political certainty

Don Cameron Won't Accept

An impression prevails to night that Don Cameron will decline on account of health and business engagements.

Compromise on the Diplomatic Appropriation Bill

It is reported that the compromise committees on the diplomatic appropriation bill will agree and that the report will be accepted in both houses

Jones and Eaton Agree.

It is reported that Jones of Florida joined Eaton in the opinion that the Senate has no jurisdiction in the Belknap case

Currency Question.

In the Democratic caucus to night a movement was made for some action by the House on the currency question and it is now proposed that the rules be so amended as to give the banking and currency committee the privilege to report at any time which was agreed to This is accepted in lieu of the direct proposition of Neal for the repeal of the resumption act.

Hawaiian Treaty to be Investigated.

The Sun's Washington special says It is asserted to-day at the capital that the Pacific coast lobby expended $300,000 in securing the passage through the House of the bill giving effect to the Hawaiian treaty The names of the recipients of portions of this money were given It appears that the actual exports from the Hawaiian Islands are of less importance than the privilege it will give to successfully carry on smuggling on a large scale The charge will probably be investigated and an opportunity given to show where the money was put to do the most good,

Hopes for Conkling.

The Herald editorially thinks Conkling is rising gradually. Blaine is no stronger than Conkling but if he does not go into the convention with an absolute majority, he will never get it. Hayes is altogether the best man for the second place If it shall become evident early that Blaine is impossible Conkling and Hayes are now probable This would be the strongest ticket possible with the Republicans

Ex-Postmaster-General Creswell Examined.

Ex Postmaster General Creswell was examined by the House committee on postoffices and post roads to day and testified that the first year he was postmaster general there was scarcely any straw bidding but in 1870 after the examination of certain bids he came to the conclusion they were not made in good faith He prepared the draft of a bill which he thought would protect the department and this bill was considered in the Senate He wanted to exclude manifestly fictitious bids and in case of failure by lowest bidder to comply with his contract, to have authority to make a contract with any of the other bidders or an outside person This was stricken from the bill and a provision inserted that in case of the failure of the contractor the postmaster general should take the next lowest bid and so on up the list As thus amended the bill became a law He then called on the attorney general for an opinion as to whether after the failure of the contractor and a refusal of the next lowest bidder to perform the service he had the right to select any other than the next lowest bidder or was required to advertise for proposals. The attorney general said he must advertise. Creswell explained with the aid of official data, the reason for his action on certain contracts but there was no point of general interest in this portion of his testimony

American Financial Agents at London.

WASHINGTON May 26—The Senate executive session to day confirmed the nomination of Seligman Bros to be the financial agents of the United States at London

Troops Ordered to the Black Hills.

WASHINGTON May 26—At the solicitation of Gen Thayer who came here for the purpose of having troops sent to protect the miners in the Black Hills Gen Sherman yesterday sent the following telegram to Gen Sheridan

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF UNITED STATES, }
WASHINGTON, D C May 2 187 }

To Gen P H Sheridan Chicago Illinois I have just been to the President with Gov Thayer After reading papers and some discussion the President said that the people who had gone to the Black Hills, or Dakota inside the Sioux Indian reservation or who may hereafter go there are there wrongfully and that they should be notified of the fact but the government is engaged in certain measures that will probably result in the opening up of the country to occupation and settlement. In the meantime the Indians should not be allowed to kill and scalp anybody and you are authorized to afford protection to all persons who are coming away or who are conveying goods or stores for those already there I understand that arrangements are now in progress with Red Cloud and Spotted Tail to remove. If satisfactory arrangements are not concluded new orders will be made as to the whites who have intruded on the reservation (Signed) W T SHERMAN Gen

Report on Schenck

WASHINGTON May [illegible]—The foreign affairs committee submitted their report in the Schenck case It is said the questions presented for inquiry and consideration were as follows

1 Whether it is proper for an American minister to allow the use of his name and office publicly or in official position for the two cannot be separated to further the sale of American property in the open markets of the country to which he is accredited

2 Whether his relations to the vendors of the property have been such as to cast suspicion upon his motives and subject his action to unfavorable criticism

3 Whether his subsequent action in connection with the company or its shares by dealing in them or otherwise is compatible with the proper exercise of the diplomatic functions and the maintenance of a position of honored usefulness at his post of duty

After considering at length the mass of testimony the committee finds that General Schenck having been a director of the Emma Mining company was engaged in speculative operations in stocks with Trenor W Park vendor of the mine with Woolhull his secretary [illegible] upon his own account to the extent hereafter re stated in such manner as to subject his name and station to a criticism of the United States to criticism the committee therefore find [illegible] the inquiries announced at the beginning of their report

Upon the authority of the dispatch of the secretary of state that it was not proper for an American minister at the court of St James to connect himself as director with the Emma mining company of London [illegible] position confirmed by the authority of the [illegible] who says in truth every state ought by expressly forbidding their ambassadors to combine engagements in private trade or commerce with the sacred duty of representative to prevent any question of the kind ever arising

That the relation of Gen Schenck to the vendor of the Emma mine were of such a character as to cast suspicion upon his motive and subject his action to unfavorable criticism but the committee believe he was not guilty of any fraudulent intention in connection with the company or the vendors [illegible]

This [illegible] subsequent speculative dealings in the shares of the company were not compatible with his diplomatic station and the maintenance of his position of honor and usefulness at the court [illegible] which he was accredited the committee therefore submit the following resolution and unanimously recommend its passage by the House

Resolved That this House condemns the actions of Gen Robert C Schenck U S minister at the court of St. James in becoming a director of the Emma Silver Mining Co of London and his operations in connection with the shares of the said company and the vendors thereof as ill advised and unfortunate

Postoffice and Postroads Bill

Fish Interviewed About the Chinese.

Commissioner Roach accompanied by Congressman Piper had an interview with Secretary Fish to day on the Chinese question The secretary repeated the assurances he had heretofore given as to his desire to aid in securing remedies for the evils complained of but added that he anticipated much opposition to the movement. He said the religious element of the country is now agitating the subject and urging the continuance of the present treaty on account of its presumed value in facilitating missionary work for the conversion of the heathen and he said there was also opposition from the owners of American vessels plying in Chinese waters but he thought nevertheless the treaty should be modified

The Latest Turkish Note.

PARIS May 26—The journal Des Debats purports to give a full summary of the note of the Berlin Conference The preamble recites that the Powers have the normal right and duty to obtain the fulfillment of the engagement which the Sultan contracted in accepting the terms of Count Andrassy's note On its fulfillment depends the maintenance of peace with the Sultan, as it provides nothing whereby Mussulman fanaticism is encouraged The Salonica affair is due to the Porte's hesitation The memorandum states that the Powers have agreed upon the following points

First—On two months armistice during which it is hoped an understanding on the basis of Andrassy s note will be reached

Second—The Porte to restore the houses and churches and supply the owners with food for one year, and exempt them from taxation for three years from their return

Third Such relief to be distributed by a commission composed of the representatives of the two religions of Herzegovina with a Christian presiding

Fourth The Turkish troops to be withdrawn, except from six fortified towns, until the complete pacification of the country

Fifth The Herzegovinians not to lay down their arms until the Moslems have laid down theirs and the reforms have been faithfully executed

Sixth The consuls or delegates of the powers to superintend generally the execution of the reforms, especially the return of the refugees.

The note concludes that if the armistice expires without the accomplishment of the programme such effectual measures will be taken by the powers as may appear requisite.

Match Trot.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26—The match trot, a purse and stake of $1,200, which was postponed by the storm of Tuesday was settled yesterday in the presence of a large attendance of highly interested spectators Gold Note Henry Prince, Allen and George Treat started Gold Note was the favorite with most of the pool buyers to the very last although he had not so much as a heat recorded in his favor during the race After four heats had been trotted, Prince was declared the winner of the race and money. Geo Treat won the first heat in 2:30 The time of the other heats was 2:32, 2:37 and 2:30

Sailboat Upset—Three Drowned.

On Wednesday afternoon, W T Sherman Eugene Smith Charles H Bolam and Fred Higgins, reported to have been employes of the California Watch Company started from Berkeley for a sailboat excursion to the oyster beds, about eight miles from Berkeley When about half way a squall upset the boat drowning all except Sherman The four men clung to the bottom of the boat for about four hours and while drifting the Berkeley ferry steamer passed within 500 yards of them, but no one on the steamer saw them, and soon after Smith let go, then Higgins, and at last Bolam, while Sherman clung to the boat until it drifted on the beach near the Oakland race track and about midnight he crawled to the Baxter House, near by on the San Pablo road

Fire at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO May 25—Shortly after 9 o clock a fire broke out in the ship chandlery establishment of Farwell & Co, in a three story brick building on the southwest corner of California and Davis streets, the lower floor being occupied by Holbrook, Merrill & Co., hardware and J. D Arthur & Son dealers in wagons, material etc The upper stories were used for offices The fire started in the rear of Farwell & Co s, on the lower floor, burning upwards to the roof, thence it spread over the entire upper story, the fire walls in all the stores stopping short of the roof, and giving the flames free passage The fire department succeeded in confining the fire to the upper story, which was completely burned off. The damage by fire and water is estimated in the neighborhood of $500,000, said to be covered by insurance, mostly in Eastern companies. The fire patrol rendered excellent service in protecting the stocks in the lower stores from water The fire is still burning, but is now under control

Smallpox in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO May 26—At a meeting of the board of health it was reported that fourteen cases of smallpox were now known to exist in the city, and presumably some unknown cases in Chinatown. The disease is pronounced epidemic, and proper sanitary measures will be taken to prevent its spread

Mrs. Whiting's Movements.

Mrs Whiting left for San Diego in the Orizaba to-day, to join her daughter and Jones in Lower California Public indignation is very strong against her here for her infamous conduct which by some is partly attributed to unsoundness of mind.

Losses by the Late Fire.

Returns by the insurance companies show that the losses by last night's fire are, very impartially distributed among nearly all the local and such Eastern and foreign companies as are interested, scarcely any of the companies losing over $20,000, and in most cases much less

Sacramento Races

SACRAMENTO May 26—Entries for the trotting and pacing races at the spring meeting of the Sacramento Jockey Club began to come in this morning and are being rapidly received both by letter and telegraph The entries for these close at 11 this evening, but will not be opened until the club meets next Saturday evening

The entries for the handicap race closed sometime since and the committee appointed for that purpose announce that the horses will carry weight as follows Lady Amanda, 111 pounds, Golden Gate and Budley, each 108 Emma Skaggs 105; Billy Newell 100 South Breeze, 90 Turf Gallery, 90; Reveille, 87, Minnie Blackburn 80 The prospects are now that the coming races will be the most successful that have yet taken place

The weather is getting very hot again.

Senate Chinese Commission at Work.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26—The Senate Chinese commission reconvened here to-day All were present except Haymond F L Gordon testified at length concerning the offering of rewards for the assassination of obnoxious parties by the Chinese He mentioned several cases in which men had been killed for rewards and women blackmailed cut and killed A price had been offered for witness life for enforcing the payment of a debt given him for collection from a Chinese firm Almost an Extradition Case.

SAN DIEGO May 26—District Attorney Wildy returned from below the line last night whence he has been with the constable, who had a warrant for the arrest of Jones of the Jones Whiting sensation, on the charge of felony Jones and Mamie were stopping at Pedro Badillo's, just across the line When the officers arrived there they found Villagrana commandante of the forces there who refused to allow Jones to be taken from Mexican territory without a requisition from the proper legal authorities There is no doubt that Villagrana will protect Jones to his utmost Mr Fennell uncle of Mamie, was also there and endeavored to prevail upon her to return with him to his home at Julian but she expressed her determination of staying with Jones When Jones found there was a warrant for his arrest he was furious complained of persecution and all that sort of thing The probabilities are that all hands will go to San Rafael next week They think if the commandante could be got away, Jones could be got this side of the line, but Villagrana is watchful and suspicious

Guardian Appointed.

Judge Ferral, of the probate court, to day appointed W L Palmer of Palmer Knox & Co guardian of Mamie Whiting on the ground that her mother was an unfit person to have control of her being engaged in an attempt to deprive her of her property and having also consented to her bigamous marriage with Jones

Suicide

LOS ANGELES May 26—Marion Hutchinson an old and highly respected citizen of Downey City committed suicide at that place this morning by placing the muzzle of a shot gun in his mouth and firing it off by his foot completely blowing his head to pieces He had long been an invalid and was at the time of the act lingering in the last stage of consumption Depression of spirits arising from his long continued and extreme suffering, is assigned as the cause of his suicide

Satisfactory Nomination.

The nomination by the Democratic Convention of Hon W D Wigginton for Congress from the 4th district, is the cause of much satisfaction among the Democrats of this city, who regard the action of the Convention as an endorsement of Mr Wigginton s bearing in Congress

OREGON RAILWAY CONNECTIONS

MR PENGRA'S VIEW OF THE SITUATION—LETTER FROM MR HUNTINGTON

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I send you herewith, for publication, a letter from Mr Huntington, explanatory of his view of a portion of his proposition, which appeared in the OREGONIAN of recent date It will be seen by this, that he holds pretty firmly to the substance of his proposition, but he says in a brief letter of the 28th ult, that whilst they see no reason for departing from the substance the manner of them (form) may be open to alteration"

It is sufficient to say of section six of the proposition, of bill presented for consideration, that as it stands, if enacted into law, it would be in direct violation of our constitution, and therefore invalid The substance" of this sixth section can only be obtained, not by exemption but for services performed, and whatever opinion may have been expressed to Mr Huntington by Oregonians now in the East as to the liberality of this proposition, we may as well conclude now as to wait for the evidence that no legislature of respectable intelligence will grant the substance" of this section, with careful restrictions and proper limitation.

Referring to the closing sentence of the proviso of section eleven, I would say that the substance of the section has been often and very earnestly discussed with Mr H and the entire board of directors of the C P Co., that they have always expressed a willingness to do whatever the nature of the present and future trade of the country would admit of, to place the freight and fares on our connecting line on the same general footing with those on their through line, and they only desire to make exceptions in any manner, not as to local but through freights, and not as to freights except in times of sharp competition with the Panama and Isthmus line. This sentiment has been expressed over and over again to other gentlemen of this State aside from myself We have been assured that, as their company were at most but common carriers, it would be of as much and more to their interest to so manage the matter of freights and fares as to build up and develop the utmost interests of the State and entire northwest coast as to ours," and that "in this lay our guarantee of safety " I can but think, therefore that it is not the intent, as a common practice, to add the difference of the cost of freight between Portland and San Francisco to the through bills of lading from Portland to New York, and vice versa, as an amount always to be paid over and above the current cost from San Francisco; and that this phrase was only intended to express the extremest limit of their protection in time of sharp competition with the line referred to I think it safe to conclude therefore, that any form which meets this desired and will be acceptable as to this section.

The entire substance sought in section 4 is secured in section 1 of the act approved October 22, 1874 of which this is asked as an amendment, and nearly in the same language, and may be left out.

As to section 5 it is sufficient to say, that all corporate companies formed under the constitution and laws of Oregon, have a right to possess by purchase, grant, or otherwise, any amount of real estate in lands which they may deem necessary or profitable to possess by providing for so doing, as one of the objects of the corporation at the time of making and filing their articles, or afterwards filing supplementary articles to the original act of incorporation. Section five might therefore as well be cut of the bill as in, for it adds nothing to the rights of the company as now organized

Permit me in [illegible] in this connection, that the [illegible] of Mr. Villard that [illegible] your [illegible] the 11th inst. furnishes an evidence of [illegible] with the offer of Mr. Huntington which presents no new features to the public. All the commercial facilities we now [illegible] is via the little stub railway from Roseburg to Portland, and the via waters (dredge in north pole) of the Wallamet and Columbia and by sea to San Francisco This line is owned by our really accommodating friends, the Germans, managed by Mr. Villard, and he, invites us to travel with him and be content. He urges us to avoid Pacific railroad connections and California. Will Mr. V please tell us where, and with whom, the business of his line connects? For one, I find no fault with the gentlemen who now own and control this line, nor their point of connection with the business of the outer world It is the best their situation offers and is right in itself But I am greatly disturbed for the reason that we all we have I know no reason why we should shun or fear the "social" or business world in any direction. The greater the number of people and amount of active business developed in any given portion of our common country, the greater occasion we have for seeking business and "social" connections with them We have had enough of Mason and Dixon's line in our history with its hatred and suffering Certainly the coast trade and travel with our countrymen in California, via the magnificent system of railways now being pushed forward with great vigor for the purpose of reaching all parts of Mexico is matter of value and importance to us. The connection with Nevada and all her mining resources, with a population equal to our own, who would draw most all of their supplies from us, is important and the connection with all the great cities of the East and intermediate Territories, by the only line which would reach a portion of them—one that can be built now—is matter of value and import us. Give us something more than the gateway to the Columbia, is the earnest desire of every well informed, well wisher of Oregon, and the intelligent reader will understand Mr Villard's letter as meaning delay only; delay until the business which he represents shall be made as safe as to its present or future value to its owners. Of course every right minded man will desire to see justice done to every interest—for on this success to all, business rightly depends. But whoever expects to be joined by the mass in delaying the entire prosperity of the State in aid of the owners of our present lines of trade, must—except perhaps a combination with owners of the interior river lines for selfish ends—be relying upon some supposed lack of foresight or ignorance of the masses. What we all need what we must have, is prompt action, and quick relief from the isolation that is the cause of our distress If the owners of our present railroad line feel themselves slighted or endangered by us let them come forward and save themselves by generously affording us the required relief and I trust they will find us neither cold nor indifferent to their welfare when they show us that our own is being cared for.

B J PENGRA

Following is the letter from Mr. Huntington to which Mr Pengra refers in his communication.

NEW YORK May 3, 1876

B J PENGRA, Esq Portland, Oregon—Dear Sir Yours of the 17th ult is received and contents perused The memorandum basis of contract which you so anxiously awaited is already before you

As I wrote you in my last the Oregonians whom I meet here are well pleased with the proposition, and quite elated at the prospect of getting railroad connection and all seem to think the State's share of interest on the cost of construction is very moderate and some of them are surprised we did not put it at five millions instead of three

I notice what you say in regard to the probability that this sum will have to be raised by extra taxes I think your friends see only one side of the subject Suppose the tax should be for the first year or two, four mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, would not the value of every man's farm store, mill, or other property be increased more than ten per cent by the construction of the railroad? I think it could be demonstrated that you now have to pay every year two or three times the annual interest in the extra freight rates marine insurance, delays and inconveniences of your present mode of communication. The greater expedition of your mails and of passengers alone would be worth to your State many times the annual contribution asked to secure the railroad. Then there is the influx of immigration and of travelers on business or pleasure to your State, all of which bring more or less into the State and the profits upon which would, I have no doubt, amount to [illegible] times the State s disbursement, [illegible] permanent additions to the property of the State from this settlement and [illegible] your lands

As a matter of fact, it is not likely that any such addition will be required to your [illegible] from this cause You will notice [illegible] the State, is not to begin to pay interest on the bonds except as sections of twenty miles or more are completed, and will not have to pay out the whole $210,000 per annum [illegible] the 100 miles ac[illegible] the mountains is pleted, which, as it is the hardest part, will probably be the last finished, so that the amount will only be wanted [illegible] the ready for operation and your [illegible] the benefit of it, by which [illegible] have been such an [illegible] make it scarcely felt. In fact, [illegible] fifteen or twenty years I [illegible] duction of [illegible] an inc[illegible] in the [illegible] from the incr[illegible] by the railroad. This is one [illegible] for the arrang[illegible] to run for 30 [illegible] of 20, as your [illegible] nary lifetime of [illegible] is not likely they will all be [illegible] during two or [illegible]

I have not yet [illegible] the answer [illegible] Board of Trade [illegible] me is on the way, but if the [illegible] is a fair [illegible] of it, I [illegible] are [illegible]

In the first place we [illegible] duce the sum we have [illegible] as the share. That might as well be [illegible] as later. Our position is taken and by it In the second place, as I [illegible] while we do not [illegible] to [illegible] years, as named in the [illegible] ably half of it, it is only [illegible] not to bind ourselves to do [illegible] very awkward to [illegible] selves and [illegible] should not [illegible] to [illegible] miles of mountain [illegible] But after the [illegible] make [illegible] a year or two, [illegible] should build as fast as the [illegible] the work would admit in any [illegible] we ought to have this [illegible] the best location of the [illegible]

The proposition to [illegible] the road to a fixed [illegible] act of your [illegible] The plan of [illegible] cent. on the stock is [illegible] a good [illegible] for its [illegible] this railroad is the [illegible] safety, comfort, [illegible] State, it is [illegible] career, to the [illegible] and [illegible] and on the contributes to the [illegible] your society.

I make these [illegible] that you may not [illegible] Whether your State [illegible] in a favorable mood for the [illegible] proposal, I do not know; [illegible] of no use to app[illegible] to [illegible] ter terms, if you [illegible] soon We are getting to be [illegible] of us are [illegible] to rest, more work and [illegible] field beckoning us to [illegible] Oregon; and I [illegible] as well with [illegible] can do with [illegible] better [illegible] Only we would [illegible] holding this [illegible] can [illegible] who [illegible] at [illegible] failed [illegible] We can [illegible] are not held [illegible]

I have had [illegible] Tilton, of your city, [illegible] ing in the interest of the [illegible] plained the above points [illegible] understands now our [illegible] anxious to have the [illegible] end Very respectfully,

C. P. [illegible]

THE N[illegible]

GOOD LAND AND [illegible]

COLUMBIA CITY, [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE [illegible]

Permit me, through the [illegible] paper, to give an account to the [illegible] that five of us made to N[illegible] time since. On the 9th of this [illegible] accompanied by Mr. Wil[illegible] Mr Wilkins and Mr. [illegible] place for the purpose of [illegible] try w[illegible] of head and log[illegible] Nehalem river, the [illegible] demonstrate the [illegible] to the valley, and the [illegible] thrifty [illegible] over which we p[illegible] for four [illegible] atively level; some [illegible] ment, though timbered [illegible] maple, cedar and fir of [illegible] all on arriving at the river we [illegible] beautiful stream that the [illegible] clear as crystal, of the [illegible] feet, depth 3 to 6 feet, [illegible] to be seen. At this [illegible] boats could run upon [illegible] niently as they can up [illegible] the W[illegible]

Now as to the country. It is the [illegible] tiful spot in Oregon now o[illegible] for [illegible] At least for a distance of [illegible] mostly unoccupied, over which we [illegible] (between the upper and lower settl[illegible]) found rich bottom lands, from one to [illegible] miles wide, in some places including the [illegible] lands, which we were told by the settl[illegible] ten miles wide, covered with [illegible] and productive than the bottom lands, and [illegible] may do for grain. The wh[illegible] clover, etc., that we saw upon the [illegible] lands grew splendidly—over [illegible] this part of the country, as the soil [illegible] a little sandy, warm and extremely productive The undergrowth would in[illegible] very rich soil, being mostly ash, maple, white fir, spruce and yellow fir, with [illegible] oak The ash swales (as they are called) are extensive, being from one-half a [illegible] wide to three miles long—wet in w[illegible] though dry in summer These lands [illegible] really beaver dam lands, which can all be drained with comparatively small o[illegible] and the best farms in Oregon can be made in this way as the lands have but little if any, timber or brush upon it, and is entirely free from fern so common to the prairie lands on this coast. We have lived in this country long, and traveled pretty extensively, and have never seen a place where game was so plentiful—such as elk and deer, as the Nehalem country This is one proof that the country is adapted to stock raising In short, it is the best stock country, now unoccupied, in Oregon Some places such as Elk ranch, Cottonwood ranch, Willbank's creek, Oak and Maple ranches with hundreds of others which far surpass the stock ranches of the Columbia river, or Eastern Oregon, as the stock will do well both summer and winter without so much expensive feeding, and a market always at hand without steamboat transportation As a proof fifty five settlers have found comfortable homes there, and all [illegible] well pleased and happy with prospects in the future We were told by the settlers that a steamboat could run upon the river to the Pacific ocean,—a distance of 75 miles, as the people pass upon the stream at all times, in boats and canoes without difficulty I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best portion of this county

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1876.

THE REPUBLICANISM THAT IS DEMANDED BY THE PEOPLE.

Mr. Williams' speech at the Republican meeting at Turn Halle sounds the key note of the fall campaign: Republican principles and Republican practices, exposure and punishment of official corruption and corruptionists, civil service reform, and no more party lash or caucus domination to coerce the conscience of the citizen. This is the demand of the hour. The Republican party can not go to the country upon its past services merely, nor on the delinquencies of the Democracy. The former is dead, for all the [illegible] of a national campaign, and the latter has too much of the flavor of meaningless party claptrap. The party that would carry the election now must have reform inscribed on all its banners, and must convince the people that the inscription is something more than a device for election purposes. There must be convincing earnestness, and the standard-bearers must be men whose characters are a satisfactory guaranty that what they [illegible] they will in good faith and to the [illegible] of their ability perform. The people are [illegible] suspicious of politicians and have no faith in party platforms. They remember how from year to year their hopes have been fed on, and how many times these promises have proved delusive. They remember with a painful [illegible] how the campaign of 1872 [illegible] upon the then new hope of re[illegible] in the civil service appointments, and how cruelly they were betrayed by [illegible] who rode into a power on [illegible]. The [illegible] himself must be a [illegible] now. His associa[illegible] and known affiliations must give [illegible] to his promises and profes[illegible] the hope of reform [illegible]. Nothing short [illegible]. The [illegible] is buried, the [illegible] filthy thing, and the [illegible] has any power of the mind [illegible]. Only let us know, cry the people, that the end of the long dark night [illegible], that honesty is to take the place [illegible]; that patriotism is to rule [illegible] now sits enthroned; [illegible] are to be required to [illegible] in preference to themselves, [illegible] the party that places them in [illegible] the sordid lust of politi[illegible] is no longer [illegible] a grand scheme [illegible] and rewards for [illegible], only let us feel assured [illegible] and we shall not stop [illegible] articles of political [illegible] platform. That is [illegible] that to-day echoes all over [illegible] Democracy have thus far, [illegible] given the control of the [illegible] the National legislature [illegible] the promise or [illegible] placed them there. [illegible] they have [illegible] into a wretched [illegible] who would not [illegible] might dam[illegible] friends. They have [illegible] reform of the civil [illegible] to a bill ostensibly for [illegible] as to reach [illegible] only Republicans, an[illegible] making it [illegible] to Democratic corrup[illegible] they threw themselves upon its proposition and [illegible]. Nothing in the way of re[illegible] for from that source, [illegible] into better hands [illegible].

[illegible] there be hope of reform [illegible] ring of Republicans. [illegible] weighed in the balance [illegible]. They will be sent [illegible]. The Republican party of [illegible], the progressive Republi[illegible] shams and frauds, and [illegible] tricksters, the patriotic Repub[illegible] never came into the party be[illegible] spoils and booty to bestow, [illegible] country and command its [illegible] numbers of them have [illegible] for conscience sake, and they [illegible] for conscience sake when[illegible] satisfied that the future of [illegible] to be guided by patriotism [illegible]. They are as ready to help [illegible] of the needed re[illegible] have been, and will be [illegible] to strike down the im[illegible] has been willing under [illegible] the Republican [illegible].

COMPARE THE TICKETS.

[illegible] weekly of this city devotes [illegible] of space in this week's [illegible] abuse of the Republican [illegible] for county and legislative [illegible]. We are not disposed to meet [illegible] with blackguardism, and we shall not answer the paper [illegible] in its own style. A comparison of the two tickets is sufficient to con[illegible] any right minded person where the [illegible] candidates are to be found. The [illegible] for county offices on the Republican ticket are all men of the very best [illegible] in the community and eminently [illegible] for the positions for which they [illegible]. And as to the legislative [illegible] we only ask the voters to compare the two tickets. The Democratic organ [illegible] at Mr. M. C. George, Republican [illegible] for Senator. Dare either Mr. [illegible] or Mr. Davis meet Mr. George in [illegible]? Dare either of them attempt [illegible] canvass with him? The office is one that requires grasp and scope of mind. Is [illegible] of those gentlemen the equal of Mr. George in any of the qualifications [illegible] for a senator? Which of [illegible] stands higher than Mr. Barnes the other Republican candidate, as a man of integrity and ability? They are both gentlemen with whom we sustain pleasant social relations, and we speak of them [illegible] none but kindly feelings; but it is not [illegible] cause of offense to tell the truth, and [illegible] truth is that they dare not measure [illegible] with Mr. George in a public can[illegible] and neither of them can claim any advantage over Mr. Barnes, who, like [illegible], is not a speaker, but who is an hon[illegible] business man and a man of good judgment. Mr. Blum is criticised because of his youth. What advantage has Mr. Holmes over him in that respect? Mr. Blum is one of the brightest young men in Portland. If out of the seven Democratic candidates for Representatives two could be found who are half way the equal of Mr. Blum, the Democratic ticket would be much better than it is. So let the comparison be carried through, and it will be found that the Republicans have presented a set of candidates who ought to be much more acceptable than their opponents. If the Democrats propose to conduct this campaign by personal attacks, we take the liberty of suggesting to them that before they get fairly into the discussion they make a close inspection into the personal character of some three or four of their own candidates. The exercise will surely do them good, and it may possibly serve to show them that the enterprise is one that can not be carried out successfully as a wholly one-sided performance.

THE GOVERNOR'S SENATORIAL PROSPECTS.

Governor Grover does not make the most encouraging headway in his candidacy for the U. S. Senate. While he perambulates the country in pursuit of new support, and sends his deputy down to Portland to organize the campaign for him in this county, his old staunch friends, one after another, turn their backs upon him. Mr. John Myers, of Clackamas, who has been regarded as the leader of the Grover faction publicly declares he will not vote for him in caucus or anywhere else. The Governor would save himself from much labor and infinite anxiety by accepting the inevitable at once. He will have to give up this Senatorial dream sooner or later, and the sooner he does so the better Governor and the happier man will he be. It is already apparent to those who are not blinded by partisan infatuation that the Democrats are not going to have a majority in the next legislature, and it is hardly less apparent that if they should have a majority, Governor Grover would be none the better off for it.

NOTES AND QUERIES.

What is the origin and meaning of the word "mustang?" H.

Answer: Worcester defines the word to mean "the wild horse of the prairies." Mr. J. R. Bartlett says the word "mustang" is from the Spanish word mesteno, which is derived from the Spanish mostenco, signifying strayed, vagabond, without owner. Other authorities trace the derivation of the word to the Spanish mesta, flock or herd. The former derivation is no doubt the correct one, as the animal is a wild descendant of the horses brought to this continent by the first Spanish colonists. Some of these horses escaped from their owners, and their progeny, multiplying greatly, spread over the great western and southern prairies. Speaking of the mustang Mr T. B. Thorpe says he is a small, hardy, active fellow, and as well adapted to the prairies as the camel to the desert.

Why is a certain part of a musical composition called the tenor? DD.

Answer: Tenor from its derivation from the Latin word teneo, to hold, signifies that it holds, or sustains the air, substance, or meaning of the musical theme. Formerly the part now sung by the soprano, or treble, was given to the tenor, which carried the principal part, the plain song of the music. It is now the second of the four parts in harmonical composition.

Ordinance No. 1760.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of Third street lying between the south side of Columbia street and the center line of Harrison street.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of Third street lying between the south side of Columbia street and the center line of Harrison street, shall be completed as hereinafter provided on or before the first day of July, 1876.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank or other obstructions (sidewalks and plank roadways of the proper width and grade, and otherwise in good condition excepted.) If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent property within three days after notice they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading, to the established grade, and laying sidewalks, crosswalks and plank gutters.

Section 4. The grading, sidewalks, crosswalks and plank gutters shall correspond as nearly as practicable to the provisions of sections 6, 7, 8 and 9 of Ordinance No. 793, entitled "an Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The provisions of sections 11 and 12 of said Ordinance No. 793, shall apply to all lumber and material used in the improvement provided for by this Ordinance.

Section 6. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Superintendent of Streets.

Section 8. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for, receive proposals and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Passed the Common Council May 24, 1876.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE.
[illegible] Acres in EASTERN OREGON!
For Farming and Grazing Purposes.

THESE LANDS ARE SITUATED IN WASCO, Grant and Baker counties, and are offered for sale in such sized tracts, not less than 160 acres, as purchasers may desire. Here is afforded a most favorable opportunity to immigrants and settlers seeking homes and low priced land to acquire both on the most reasonable terms. These lands are excellent for farming and grazing. On most of the tracts no grubbing or other preparation of the land for plowing is requisite. A growth of nutritious grass covers the uplands, affording the best of pasturage, while in the valleys and bottom lands the grass can be mowed and made into hay. Living springs and streams water the lands in various directions. The uplands, or rolling lands, can be put into crops with the most satisfactory return. Fruit, particularly peaches, plums, grapes, apples, pears and cherries, as well as the smaller fruits, can be grown in great abundance. The climate of Eastern Oregon is very healthful. Flourishing towns are located at convenient points for traffic; the mails are regularly conveyed throughout that section, and a prosperous population is already established, occupied in farming, stock growing, mining, and various other pursuits.

Terms, $1 25 per acre and upwards, according to quality and quantity. Interest ten per cent. on deferred payments.

For further information, apply in person, or by letter to GEO. L. CURRY, Agent, Cree's Building, Stark st., bet. Front & First.

BOATING NOTES.

All the O. S. S. Co.'s fleet of boats are tied up—Alice, Bonanza, E. N. Cooke, Dayton, Success and Fannie Patton.

During the temporary disablement of the steamer Welcome, the fleet Bonita will continue on the Portland-Kalama route.

Notwithstanding the high water, work on Capts. Holman and Gilman's new tug is being pushed with vigor. The inside planking is being put on.

Before sailing for Sitka and intermediate ports, the steamer California will be repainted and cleaned out. She will probably not sail for a week or more.

The steamer Yakima is making regular trips between Celilo and Lewiston. In a few weeks the Yakima will be hauled off and the New Tenino assume the line.

The steamer E. N. Cooke is still tied up at the lower end of the O. S. S. Co.'s dock. There is considerable inquiry as to when she will commence running again.

Only three boats are now running on the Upper Wallamet. The Beaver makes regular trips between Portland and Dayton, and the Occident and City of Salem run as far up as Corvallis.

Work on the boiler of the O. S. N. Co.'s new boat is being pushed ahead, and the finishing strokes will be given in a few weeks. The smoke stack is about completed.

A force of carpenters are employed in getting out the timbers, knees, etc., for the new boat to be built the present season at Celilo, by the O. S. N. Co. The work of laying the keel will soon be commenced.

Thursday the steamer Josie McNear was sent down the river. She will be employed the present season in plying on the Lower Columbia among the various fisheries and Astoria, conveying salmon, lumber, cases, etc., to and fro.

The Willamet Iron Works are engaged in turning out two engines which are to be used in propelling the little steamer Gem that is to ply about Fort Wrangel. The engines are 10½ inch bore and 20 inch stroke. They will soon be finished and shipped to their destination.

The steamer Welcome has been lying at the boneyard since her shaft was fractured. Before putting her on the regular line, the company propose to increase the power of the machinery. The engines which have so long driven the steamer Owyhee will be placed in the Welcome. These engines are considerable larger than those on the latter boat, and will greatly augment her speed and power. The shaft of the Owyhee will also be used in place of the fractured one.

During the present week the O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Annie Stewart has been sold to Capt. L. M. Starr, owner of the North Pacific, and will soon be taken around to ply on Sound waters. The Stewart is now lying at Albina, undergoing a complete renovation. Some alterations and improvements are to be made to her cabin, and new "hog chains" will be placed in to thoroughly brace her upper works. A new "toothpick" and bulkhead will also be constructed, and before leaving here the steamer will be placed in splendid trim for passenger and freight service. It is not known to the public yet where the Stewart will run, but reports are in circulation that Capt. Starr proposes to draw the North Pacific off the route and send her to San Francisco, when she will be placed on the line down the California coast. If this be true, the Stewart will take the route between Sound ports and Victoria.

THE TURF.

James F. Bybee is training Twenty-One, Rye Straw and Oregon on the State Fair grounds, for entry at the forthcoming Portland races.

A trotting race came off a few days ago over the Oakland Trotting Park. The race was mile heats, three in five, to harness, for a divided purse of $150. The starters were Mr. Smith's Jim Chesley (formerly Oregon Jake.) Mr. Halstead's Pluck, Mr. Hinds' Amanda and Mr. McCarthy's Lilly White. Time, 2:43½, 2:44, 2:37½, 2:41, 2:39½.

Saturday, June 3d, a running race will take place over the East Poatland Trotting Park. Running half-mile heats, two in three, free for all, for a purse of $150. First horse $100; second $50. Four to enter, three to start. Entrance ten per cent. Entries to close with W. H. Andrus, at the Occidental Hotel, before 7 o'clock on Friday, June 2d.

Mr. Menefee, of Denver, Colorado, arrived at Walla Walla a few days since, bringing with him a pair of thoroughbred horses. One of these horses, named Capt. Morrison, is of the celebrated Hambletonian stock, and is a half brother of Dexter, the king of the turf. He is a beautiful dark bay, has a record of 2:30, and is possibly the finest trotting stallion ever brought to this country. The second is a stallion of the George M. Patchen and Mambrino Pilot stock, and is a dark bay, 16½ hands high.

On the 19th inst. two trotting races took place over the Bay District Course, near San Francisco. The first was a race of mile heats, three in five, to harness for $200, between C. Arnold's Lady Emma and Mr. Smiley's J. D. Howell. The first and second heats were won easily by Howell in 2:40½ and 2:40, Emma breaking badly. Hickox took the reins on the third heat, and the mare won the next three heats in 2:40½, 2:41 and 2:43. The second race was for $75, between Careless Boy, Black Prince and Yellow Jacket. The first heat was won by Careless Boy in 2:48½. The second was a dead heat between him and the Black Prince; time, 2:50. The third and fourth heats were won by Careless Boy in 2:47 and 2:40.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.

Rev. Thos. Condon will preach at the First Congregational church to-morrow, morning and evening.

Rev. R. Bentley will deliver the annual Baccalaureate sermon before the Willamette University, to-morrow morning.

Rev. D. N. Utter, of Olympia, will preach at the Unitarian chapel, morning and evening. Communion immediately after morning service.

Taylor street Methodist Episcopal church: Rev. Bishop Glossbrenner will conduct services at 11 A. M. and 7½ P. M. Sunday school at 1:45 P. M. Laymen's services at 6½ P. M.

Religious services will be held in the First Presbyterian church on Sabbath next, 28th inst., Rev. Mr. Dunning officiating. Sabbath school immediately after morning service. Prayer meeting at half past 6 A. M. Evening service at half-past 7 o'clock.

The solemn rite of confirmation will be extended by Rev. John Gantenbein in his regular service to-morrow morning, to two sons and one daughter of his congregation. Services begin at 10½ A. M., at the Chapel on Washington street, below Third.

Rev. G. H. Atkinson will preach at the schoolhouse, in McMillen's Addition to East Portland, on Sabbath, 28th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M. Communion season after morning service, followed by the Sabbath school. He will preach at Plymouth church, North Portland, corner of Fourteenth and E streets, at 3 o'clock P. M., followed by communion service.

NEW BOOKS.

The following new books have just been added to the Portland Library Association:

Mabel Martin; a harvest idyl; by John Greenleaf Whittier; with illustrations.

The Wild Man of the West; a tale of the Rocky mountains; by R. M. Ballantyne.

The Dog Crusoe; a tale of the Western prairies; by the same.

The Fire Brigade, or Fighting the Flames; a tale, by the same.

The Gorilla Hunters; a tale of the wilds of Africa.

A frontier Texan who was asked if he was going to attend the Centennial Exhibition, guilelessly replied: "I'd like to; but I'll have to put it off till next year." No one need put off ordering a suit of clothing from Beck & Waidman.

"Vill you dake sumding?" said a German teetotaler to a friend, while standing near a tavern. "I don't care if I do," was the reply. "Vell, den, let us take a valk." If you take a walk to Fishel & Roberts' you will never regret it.

Major H. H. Noble has completed his term of State service at the Royal Arsenal, but Noble Whisky will have an unlimited term as the spirit of the American people.—London Times.

RIVER AND HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

An appropriation has not been made yet by Congress for the maintenance of range lights at St. Helen's bar.

Last week some repairs were made at Fort Stevens in renewing decayed timbers of revetments and platforms.

Sundry improvements and repairs are now being made to the light station, sheds, keeper's dwelling, fence, etc., at Shoalwater Bay.

The dredger is tied up below Weidler's mill, for the present, the high water rendering a temporary suspension of operations necessary.

There will be a complete survey this season of the channel of the Wallamet from Salem to Portland, which has never been made before.

A new day beacon has been erected on San Island, near the mouth of the Columbia river, to replace one carried away by high water last winter.

The survey of the Columbia river bar is progressing very well. Surveys have been completed as far out as buoy No 2. Some of the necessary outside work has also been finished.

It is the intention to commence the work of building wing dams along the Upper Wallamet as soon as the present high stage of water subsides, which will be about the 20th of June.

The lighthouse tender Shubrick is at present down near the Bar, taking up buoys, painting and replacing them. She will probably not be ready to sail on her inspection cruise before the latter part of next month.

If the appropriation for the improvement of the Upper Columbia and Snake rivers passes the Senate, as it has passed the Lower House, work will be prosecuted next fall and winter at Pine Tree rapids on Snake river, and at Umatilla, Squally Hook, Owyhee and Rock creek rapids, on Columbia river.

Col. Wilson has concluded to expend this sum in addition to the regular appropriation, the present season in pushing the work of improving the channel of the Upper Wallamet—in removing obstacles and building wing dams. This certainly is a wise course to pursue, and one which will meet the approval of every inhabitant along the valley.

No definite action has been determined upon by the government with regard to the purchase of a tract of land situated at Point-no-Point, on which to build a lighthouse. The owner of the land asks the sum of $2,600 for a piece of sufficient size, which is regarded as very far above its value. Owing to the exorbitant price demanded, it is possible that the government may be induced to change the location of the station.

Since 1869 the unexhausted balance of an appropriation made for the improvement of the Upper Wallamet river, has remained in the hands of the several engineers having charge of this district—changing successively from Col. Williamson to Major Roberts, from Major Roberts to Gen. Michler, and finally to Col. Wilson at present the officer in charge. The amount of this unexpended balance is $3,500.

The government snag puller which has been employed for some weeks in removing obstructions on the Upper Wallamet at Independence and Luckiamute has gone up to Half Moon Bend, near Corvallis. On completing the work at the last mentioned point, the snag puller will come along down the river removing every necessary obstruction from the channel. The snag puller, under the experienced direction of Capt. Smith, is doing some very effective work the present season.

Negotiations for the purchase of a 5-acre tract of land on Tongue Point for a buoy and supply depot, have been completed, and all that is necessary to effect the purpose is to transfer the proper papers from the owner of the land to the government. An appropriation of $10,000 has been made to complete the depot, which will consist of a wharf, storehouse and keeper's dwelling. About $700 of the appropriation has already been expended,—$600 for the purchase of the land and $100 for the survey. As yet, the chief engineer has received no orders to commence these contemplated improvements.

FIRE MENTIONS.

Mr. Robert Mack, formerly of Walla Walla, is now president of Columbia Engine Co., at Olympia.

P. M. Arthur, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in the East, is now in San Francisco on a visit.

Chief Engineer Scannell, of the San Francisco fire department, recently had the misfortune to break his arm. During his disablement Assistant Engineer Brady is at the head of the department.

Next week No. 3's steamer will be taken to the machine shop and put in capital condition for the Centennial contest, as well as for general service. The "boys" do not propose to give up the gold medal without a lively contest.

No. 1's has just received their new and handsome flag. Their steamer, after having been put in elegant trim at the shop, has been taken back to the engine house. The interior of the lower story of the house is being repainted and subjected to a general renovation.

The members of the Albany fire department are on the qui vive for the Centennial celebration. They are getting their "machines" in capital trim, and propose to give our metropolitan laddies a lively shake up for the medals.

No. 4's steamer will be overhauled in a few days, repainted and placed in A 1 order. At the coming contest, the members of that efficient company intend to make "Old Protection" spout as far as any of her big sisters. A new flag staff has been erected over the engine house.

One evening last week the members of Washington Engine Co., No. 1, of Walla Walla, ran their engine out for a drill, and concluded to see what time they could make in getting water. The water in the boiler is kept warm by a "heater," and when they left the house the indicator marked one pound of steam. They ran from their house on Third to the crossing of Fifth street, nearly three blocks, and threw water through one hundred feet of hose in two minutes and thirty-four seconds, the indicator showing eighteen pounds of steam at the time.

NOTICE.

The undersigned in taking leave of Portland returns his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage that has been bestowed, and would bespeak for his successors a continuance of the same.

Both Drs. BARBER & NICKLIN are gentlemen in every way competent and worthy of any confidence that may be placed in them, and as such I can conscientiously recommend them to my former friends and patrons. J. H. HATCH.

Hereafter those wishing to be vaccinated will call on Dr. Aldrich Wednesdays and Saturdays.

AFFLICTED WITH CORNS.

Persons having corns will please not pare them for four or five days and then call on or send for Dr. HAIFRUNER. He will remove and cure them without causing pain or lameness.

The oldest man in Oregon will be here at the Centennial, and during his stay will purchase a summer outfit at Rosenblatt's, 79 Front street, where bargains are offered.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original; and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. A lady always in the office to assist in treating women.

Some months ago I put myself under the treatment of Mrs. H. A. Moore for baldness of the whole upper part of the head, and am now pleased to give her a just acknowledgment of thanks for the thick, strong, well set head of hair which I now possess, and which I value more than money.

NOTES FROM SALEM.

SOCIAL, PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Our regular correspondent, under date of May 25th, sends the following:

Thos. C. Shaw has been elected a member of the board of delegates of the Salem fire department, in the place of A. J. Brown, from Tiger Engine Co. No. 2, who has removed from the city.

Miss Nora Simpson, of Portland, and Misses Carrie Whitelaw and Anna Brown, of Astoria, are in the city, to be present at the Commencement exercises of the Willamette University during the ensuing week.

Walter Jackson & Co. have disposed of their interest in the State Boot and Shoe Manufactory at the penitentiary to Messrs. Hackleman & Co. Mr. Jackson contemplates moving to Southern Oregon and entering the stock business.

Politics are red-hot and still heating, the Democracy leaving no stone unturned that will in any way further their own interests. The main fight with them is on the legislative ticket, the Grover faction making strenuous efforts to elect their respective candidates.

No little excitement was created on our streets last evening by the announcement, in the columns of the Evening Mercury, that a new Republican campaign daily would be issued to-day. It proved a flash in the pan, however, and results in nothing but a circular issued by some of our candidates in their own interests.

The approaching election for chief engineer has induced our various fire companies to fill up their somewhat depleted ranks with available men. Capital Engine Co. No. 1 sends in nineteen new names, Tiger No. 2 thirty-one, and the Alert Hook and Ladder Co. seven. The contest will doubtless prove an exciting one.

William Savage, message boy of the Western Union Telegraph Co., in this city, having gone to Seattle to accept a more lucrative position, Miss Gertie Holmes has entered the office for the purpose of learning the business and no doubt will soon manipulate lightning with as much ease and more elegance than her male competitors.

Among the novelties in the base ball world in Salem will be a match game for glory to-morrow, between nines selected from the Capital and Tiger Engine Companies, of this city, for the championship. Billy Stanton will, as umpire, call the game promptly at 1 o'clock P. M., and some good playing is anticipated, a number of our prominent ball tossers being interested.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Academy of the Sacred Heart on Wednesday evening last, proved a very pleasant affair and was largely attended. The vocal and instrumental selections were among the finest ever produced in the city. The dramas were, in some instances, really fine, but of too great length to be brought out in connection with an otherwise lengthy programme. The farce was well rendered, and the entertainment closed with a grand chorus, the receipts being liberal in the extreme.

The alumni of the Willamette University will hold their annual business meeting at 1 P. M. on Wednesday next, and the evening in the chapel will be devoted to literary exercises as follows: Oration by H. H. Gilfry, A. M., '66; poem, Nellie B. Curl, B. S., '63; essay, Marie E. Smith, B. S., '66; annals, Syl C. Simpson, A. M., '64; vocal solo, Helen L. Stratton, B. S., '63. The reunion proper will take place after the exercises are over at the university, at the residence of Mrs A. B. Meacham, who is making preparations for about forty couples.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.

The candidates on the Republican county ticket will address their fellow citizens at places and times as follows:

St. Johns, Monday, May 29, at 1 P. M.

Powell's valley, at Camp ground, Tuesday, May 30, at 1 P. M.

Sauvies Island, Moor's school house, Wednesday, May 31, 11 A. M.

Sandy, Wilmot's school house, Thursday, June 1, 1 P. M.

Willamette, Love's school house, Friday, June 2, 1 P. M.

East Portland, Friday, June 2, 8 P. M.

Democratic candidates are respectfully and cordially invited to attend and participate in the discussion. Citizens, irrespective of party, invited.

Shattered Constitutions Rebuilt.

In the use of a wholesome invigorant lies the only hope of rebuilding a shattered constitution. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are not only an eminently wholesome tonic, but they rectify with most satisfactory promptitude derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels which are incompatible with a return of health and strength. When the system is enfeebled by disease, by the wear and tear of business life, but continuous mental anxiety, by the exhaustion consequent upon late hours and fast living, by over-work and by sedentary habits, the Bitters are the most reliable medicinal agent for imparting permanent vigor to the debilitated frame. The new stock of vitality which they infuse into broken down physique, and the orderly action which they establish among the organs of digestion, secretion and evacuation, moreover, constitute its best safeguard against malarial disease.

A Universal Remedy.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" for Coughs, Colds and Bronchial Affections, stand first in public favor and confidence: this result has been acquired by a test of many years.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.
946 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.
2,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately surveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, and other advantages, on more favorable terms than they can ever expect to realize again. CHILD AND MOTHER

Love thy mother, little one!
Kiss and clasp her neck again!
Hereafter she may have a son
Will kiss and clasp her neck in vain—
Love thy mother, little one!

Gaze upon her living eyes
And mirror back her love for thee
Hereafter thou may'st shudder sighs
To meet them when they cannot see
Gaze upon her living eyes!

Press her lips the while they glow
With love that they have often told!
Hereafter thou may'st press in woe,
And kiss them till thine own are cold
Press her lips the while they glow

Oh, revere her raven hair
Although it be not silvery gray
Too early, death, led on by care
May snatch save one dear lock away
Oh, revere her raven hair

Pray for her at eve and morn!
That heaven may long the stroke defer
For thou may'st live the hour forlorn
When thou wilt ask to die with her
Pray for her at eve and morn!

TOM FOSTER'S WIFE

I had just returned from a two years stay in Europe, and was sauntering down Tremont [illegible], in the golden September morning [illegible], I saw my old friend, Tom Foster, get out of a [illegible] car a few steps in advance of [illegible]. I knew him in a moment, though we [illegible] met since we were at Exeter [illegible] together ten years before—room [illegible] and bosom companions until we parted—I to go to Havard, and he to enter his father's store, the well known house of Foster & Co., [illegible] street. He was a merry, hearty [illegible] fellow, clear skinned and robust as an Englishman, and self reliant and robust [illegible] Hampshire birth and Boston training [illegible] him. I always liked him, but he [illegible] into business, and so, without meaning it, we had almost lost sight of each other. He was an only child, and his parents spent their summers in Greenland, near Portsmouth, and their winters in Boston

[illegible] I knew him in a moment. He [illegible] tall and stout, but the boy was [illegible] and with a flush of early [illegible], I sprang forward and caught him by [illegible]

"How are you?"

[illegible] for a moment, and then, [illegible] laugh, he seized my hand in [illegible] and exclaimed

"[illegible], is that you? Where [illegible] from? I am glad to see you, [illegible]. I haven't set eyes on you [illegible] that trip to Nahant in your [illegible]. The truth is father was so [illegible] time then that I had everything to see to, and felt as if the world was on [illegible]. I did hear, though, about your [illegible] and your going to Germany, [illegible] thought of you lately and wished to see you. Why, Jack, in spite of my [illegible] and your beard and broad shoulders, I [illegible] that ten years have gone since we [illegible]. We must talk over [illegible]. When did you get back [illegible]?"

"[illegible] day, and shall stay in the city, [illegible] matter, until next [illegible] I am going home."

"[illegible] this is Saturday, and you can [illegible] 3 o'clock. Come and spend [illegible] me in the country. I want to [illegible] wife."

"[illegible] Are you married, Tom?"

"[illegible]," said he with a [illegible] in over it."

"[illegible] the jolliest thing I ever did [illegible] me at the Eastern depot at [illegible] all about it on the [illegible]"

[illegible] Winter street corner—[illegible] I to the Parker [illegible]

"[illegible] has grown," said [illegible], and the com[illegible] her sun.

"[illegible] down," he replied, [illegible] words and the [illegible] nian, to whom [illegible] all excellence and de[illegible] o'clock," and he disap[illegible]

"[illegible]," I said to myself, as I [illegible] it's to his father's [illegible] whom I saw [illegible] years ago. I [illegible] she had and how [illegible]. Yes, I dare say it's [illegible] she [illegible] young ladies, [illegible] the latest [illegible] a little and torture the [illegible] sturdy German [illegible] doll like them. It [illegible] Tom with his splendid [illegible] brain, to be tied for [illegible]" And then, turning [illegible], my thoughts wandered off [illegible] girl I had loved for many a [illegible] was not satisfied with the [illegible] of the croquet ground, but [illegible] straight home to [illegible] climb the hill with me, her [illegible] the [illegible] in the vale be[illegible] in a boat on the [illegible], if need should be, [illegible] walk or row was over, who [illegible] to a lunch of cold meat and [illegible] with an appetite keen as a [illegible] day's hunt, yes, and [illegible] in the kitchen [illegible] of the parlor. How [illegible] to see her the bewitching [illegible] might have been proud [illegible] I [illegible] to myself as I [illegible] "I do hope [illegible] self!"

[illegible] me at the station, and a [illegible] walked Tom, carrying a bas[illegible] "They don't [illegible] he, tucking the paper [illegible] the fruit. "Come this way." I [illegible] and we had just seated our[illegible] the [illegible] moved off

[illegible] Tom," said I, as we [illegible] and caught the breeze, [illegible] "But I can guess before [illegible] girl you married. It was Clara [illegible]"

[illegible] over Tom's face "Clara [illegible] four years," said he. "She [illegible] from her mother We [illegible] took her to Minnesota, but it was no use. She did [illegible] her eighteenth birthday."

"[illegible] She loved you dearly. Then [illegible] some Boston girl of your [illegible]"

"[illegible] couldn't tell who Mrs Tom Foster [illegible] tried from now till morning I [illegible] you," and moving the [illegible] and settling himself in the [illegible]: "You know I have the mis[illegible] be the only child. After I was 21, [illegible] began to talk about my [illegible]. I have plenty of cousins, you [illegible] always had young ladies [illegible] in and out of the house, but while [illegible] she was company for me, and [illegible] died I was full of business and [illegible] myself about matrimony To [illegible], I didn't fancy the girls. Per[illegible] in my acquaintance; [illegible] to me all curls and flounces [illegible], and I would as soon have [illegible] of marrying a fashion plate as one [illegible] creatures I don't object [illegible] I like it But you can see fine [illegible] and bonnets any day in the Washing[illegible] windows; and my ideal of a woman [illegible] whose dress was her least attraction [illegible] you recollect father's former partner, [illegible] Lane? He's a clever old gentleman [illegible], and father has the greatest [illegible] for him. He has two [illegible] one married years ago and the [illegible] younger, father fixed upon as [illegible] wife for me I rather think the [illegible] had talked it over together at [illegible] Miss Matilda had come to Greenland [illegible] long summer visit She is an amiable [illegible] but so petted and spoiled that she's good [illegible] nothing—undeveloped in mind and body [illegible] looked very gay in the evenings attired [illegible] Marsh & Co's latest importation [illegible] she was always late at breakfast she [illegible] care to ride horseback she couldn't [illegible] a walk without stopping to rest at every [illegible]; and once, when I asked her if she had [illegible] the battle of Sedan she looked up in her [illegible] way and said 'No, Mr Foster [illegible] papers are so tiresome Bless me what [illegible] I have done with such a baby?

"A [illegible] ago this summer I was very much [illegible] at the store; and when August came [illegible] of spending the whole month at home [illegible] I would have a change, and I went [illegible] for a fortnight to the Cliff House, on Beach. It's a quiet, pleasant resort, and you'll always find from fifty to one hundred people there during the season The landlord is a good fellow and a distant relative of mine I thought he looked flurried when I went in and after a few minutes he took me one side and said

"'Tom you've come at an unlucky time I had a very good cook that I got from Boston at $20 a week but she's a high tempered woman Last evening she quarreled with her assistants, this morning the breakfast was all in confusion and now she is packing her trunk to leave on the next train In two or three days I can probably get another one down in her place but what we're to do mean while I don't know'

"But Norton" said I "isn't there some one near by or in the house who can take it"

"'I doubt it I've half a dozen girls from the vicinity doing upstairs work—one of them from your own town the best waiter in the dining room But I suppose all of them would either be afraid of the responsibility or think it beneath them to turn cook though they would have plenty of help and earn $20 where they now get three'

"Who's there from Greenland" I asked for I knew something of almost every one in the place

"Mary Lyford"

"Mary Lyford? A black eyed light footed girl about 20 years old with two brothers in Colorado and her father a farmer over toward Strathant?"

"Yes the very same"

"Why she's the prettiest girl in Greenland at least I thought so two years ago when I danced with her at the thanksgiving party in the village and I heard last fall that she took the prize at the Manchester fair for the best loaf of bread But why is she here?"

"'Oh, you know farmers haven't much ready money and I suppose she wanted to earn something for herself and come to the Beach, like the rest of us You say she took the premium for her bread I believe I'll go into the dinning room and propose to give cook's place to any one of the girls who would like it and who feels competent to take it I must do something, and looking at his watch he went out

"Ten minutes later he came back, clapping his hands and exclaimed

"'Mary Lyford says she'll try it

"'Hurrah for Greenland' cried I 'isn't that plucky? By Jove' I hope she'll succeed, and I believe she will'

"'You mustn't expect much to day,' said Norton 'Things are all topsy turvy in the kitchen, and it'll take some time to get them straightened out'

"Just then a new arrival claimed his attention and with a serener face he turned away

"Dinner was poor that day supper was little better And, in spite of Norton's caution I began to be afraid that Greeland was going down But the next morning what a breakfast we had—juicy steaks, hot potatoes, delicious rolls and corn bread; griddle cakes that melted in your mouth, and coffee that had lost none of its aroma in the making Thence forth every meal was a triumph The guests praised the table and hastened to the table at the first sound of the bell Norton was radiant with satisfaction, and I was as pleased as if I had been landlord or cook myself Several times I sent my compliments and congratulations to Mary, but she was so constantly occupied that I never had a glimpse of her till the night before I was to leave.

"I was dancing in the parlor, and had just led a young lady of the Matilda Lane stamp to her mamma, when I saw Mary standing on the piazza I went out, shaking her cordially by the hand, told how interested I had been in her success, and how proud I was to find a Greenland girl so accomplished She blushed and thanked me, and said, in a modest way she was very glad we were all suited, and then Norton came up and expressed his entire gratification with what she had done. As she stood there in a white pique dress, with a scarlet bow at her throat, and her dark hair neatly arranged, she looked every inch a lady

"'Do me the favor, Miss Lyford,' said I 'to dance the next cotillion with me'

"'Ah, Mr Foster,' she replied, looking archly at Norton, 'that isn't expected of the help'

"'The help!' I said indignantly, 'You are the queen of the establishment, and I invite you to dance, and so does Mr. Norton'

"'Certainly I do,' he answered 'Go and show the company that you are at home in the parlor as well as the kitchen,' So, smiling and blushing, she took my arm

"Didn't we make a sensation when we went in! Perhaps there was no fellow there with a better 'social position,' (you know the phrase) than I, and I had been quite a favorite with the ladies. You should have seen them when we took our place on the floor! Some laughed, some frowned, some whispered to their neighbors, but I paid not the slightest attention to it all, and Mary looked so pretty, and went through the dance with such grace and dignity, that before it was over I believe all regarded her with admiration I didn't wait for comments, but escorted her out as if she had been the belle of Boston.

"'Good night, Miss Lyford,' I said, when we reached the hall. 'I am going in the morning, but I shall see you again when you get back to Greenland.'

"'Good night, Mr. Foster,' she replied, 'I thank you for your kindness' Then she added, laughing 'Have you any orders for breakfast?'

"'Why yes I should like to remember you by a plate of such muffins as we had yesterday'

"'You shall have them, sir,' she said as she disappeared in the doorway And have them I did

"Three weeks later, Mary came home to Greenland with more than $100 in her purse and a form that was worth thousands I went to see her at her father's house. I found her every way excellent and lovely, and the end was that at Christmas we were married"

"Glorious" I exclaimed "Give me your hand, Tom I was afraid you had been taken in by some Matilda Lane."

"Do you think I'm a fool?" said he.

Then I told him of my own choice, and I was still talking when the train stopped at the Greenland station.

We soon arrived at his hospitable home His wife was all he had pictured her, a refined, intelligent, handsome woman, who would develop and grow in attractiveness every year of her life. After a merry evening in their pleasant parlor I went to bed and dreamed that the millenium had come, and that all women were like my blue eyed girl and Mrs. Tom Foster

The disposition of the local money market at present is toward an accumulation of capital in expectation of an increased demand when the crops are ready to be moved otherwise there are no special features in local financial circles Rates are firm, but show very little tendency to a reduction

Trade matters remain in the same quiet condition noticed so often of late and as the "spring rush" is now over with merchants they expect no important changes as far as imported goods are concerned until the fall Seasonable agricultural goods are in abundant supply and the trade is quite active Dry goods and boots and shoe dealers have enjoyed a full average business and the aggregate movement of goods in their line has been such as to leave little reason to complain

The produce market has not changed and while farmers generally are too busy to pay much attention to the market, the receipts of minor articles of produce are quite ample to supply the current demand In regard to wool the Farmer says it has been shown letters from San Francisco that indicate the present price of wools in that market would be [illegible] and [illegible] cents and [illegible] cents here are talked of as the proper figures at which none is offering

Wool is lower at the East than has been the case for thirty three years Times are hard and many manufacturing industries are suspended throwing laborers out of employment so that they have to practice economy and wear old clothes The times are out of joint and it seems impossible to say what is the matter
